Guidance Notes

- 1. An occasional use notice in respect of a track may be given only by a person who is:
  - a. responsible for the administration of events on the track, or
  - b. an occupier of the track.
- 2. The meaning of track in the Act covers not just horse racecourses or dog tracks, but also any other premises on any part of which a race or other sporting event takes place, or is intended to take place. Land which has a number of uses, one of which fulfils the definition of track, can qualify for the occasional use notice provisions (eg, agricultural land upon which a point-to-point meeting takes place). Land used temporarily as a track can qualify, provided races or sporting events take place or will take place there. The track need not be a permanent fixture.
- 3. A person who accepts bets on a track, or who causes or permits premises to be used for the acceptance of bets, does not commit an offence under section 37 of the Gambling Act 2005 if:
  - a. a notice has been given under section 39 in respect of the track, and
  - b. the activity is carried on in accordance with the notice.

No other gambling activity is permitted.

- 4. Those taking bets will be required to have an Operating Licence from the Gambling Commission.
- 5. An occasional use notice must:
  - a. be given in writing to the licensing authority for any area in which the track is wholly or partly situated, and
  - b. be copied to the chief officer of police for any area in which the track is wholly or partly situated.
- 6. An occasional use notice must specify a day on which it has effect.
- 7. An occasional use notice may not be given in respect of a track for a day in a calendar year if eight occasional use notices have been given in respect of that track for days in that year.
- 8. Notices may be given in relation to consecutive days, so long as the overall limit of eight days is not exceeded in the calendar year.
- 9. It would assist if the notice could be given at least ten working days prior to the event.
